

Two Women and a Warehouse

Savannah, GA

CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

1. The Consignor understands that said property is on consignment only, with no assurance that it will be sold.
2. Upon demand by the Consignor for the return of said property under this agreement, the Consignee shall promptly make available unsold said property to the Consignor. The Consignor will pay 50% of the retail price if the item is removed prior to contract end date. The Consignee may return any property not considered salable at any time. After 67 days from date of consignment, any items that remain in the custody of Two Women and a Warehouse will be liquidated, donated or disposed of as Two Women and a Warehouse determines. Consignor is responsible for managing contract dates.
3. Sales of consigned items will be paid by check mailed to Consignor. The selling price of the property delivered under this Agreement shall be determined by Consignee, and Consignor hereby authorizes Consignee to offer said property for sale. Any prices quoted are merely estimates.
4. For services and facilities furnished in connection with sale of property received under this Agreement, the Consignee shall receive 50% of the sales price of such property and the remaining 50% of the proceeds shall be forwarded to the Consignor.
5. Payments for sold items will be sent via USPS to the address provided by Consignor during the first two weeks of the following month of the sale of consigned property.
6. Consignor agrees to indemnify Consignee, its' agents or employees, landlord(s) for Consignee, and insurance underwriters for Consignee of any and all liability for any potential or real damages to consigned property including, but not limited to: fire, theft, termites, moisture, flood, and acts of nature or "God". Consignor understands and assumes all risks of damage to said property not caused by intentional acts of the Consignee, its agents or employees. Two Women does not carry property insurance on consigned items.
7. This Agreement governs all such consignment transactions present and future between Consignor and Consignee.
